PROCEDURES

Receiving a complaint

We do not make a charge for filing a complaint.

All complaints, whether oral or written and made by or on behalf of a customer, must be referred immediately to the person responsible for handling complaints, even if the complaint has already been resolved by an apology.

Training will be provided to all staff (induction / annual basis) to ensure that they are able to recognise what constitutes a complaint for reporting purposes.

Any oral or written statement made by a client, which might be considered as a complaint, must be referred to Paul Hedgley so that it can be determined as to whether is a complaint or not.

Once it has been established if the matter is a complaint, the Financial Adviser will notify the Professional Indemnity Insurers in accordance with the terms and conditions of our PII policy.

The remaining sections apply only to complaints, which meet the following definition:

- the complaint is made by or on behalf of an eligible complainant;
- the complaint relates to a regulated activity of the firm; and
- the complaint involves an allegation that the complainant has suffered (or may suffer) financial loss, material distress or material inconvenience;

All complaints are subject to the 'Complaints resolution rules' including those resolved by close of the third business day after receipt.

Complaints resolved by close of the third business day after receipt

Any complaint resolved by the firm by the close of the third business day following the day it is received must be investigated competently, diligently and impartially; be assessed fairly, consistently and promptly; taking all relevant factors into account.

Where we consider a complaint to be resolved by the close of the third business day following the day it is received, the complainant must promptly be issued our 'Summary Resolution Communication' in writing, free of charge.

In addition to sending our 'Summary Resolution Communication' in writing other methods of communication should be used where appropriate. For example where we become aware that the complainant has particular protected characteristic under equalities legislation (e.g. a complainant who may be visually impaired) or where we have already been using another method to communicate about the complaint.

Our 'Summary Resolution Communication must:

- be fair, clear and not misleading;
- refer to the fact that the complainant has made a complaint and that we consider the complaint to have been resolved;
- If relevant, include any offer of remedial action or the appropriate level of redress (or both);

- make the complainant aware that if they are dissatisfied with the resolution of the complaint, they may be able to refer it to the Financial Ombudsman Service (FOS);
- Include the contact details of the Financial Ombudsman Service (FOS), their website address and refer them to the availability of further information on the FOS website. Further information can be found in the Financial Ombudsman Service section of this document;
- inform the complainant whether or not we will consent to the ombudsman service considering a complaint if it becomes apparent that the complaint has been made or referred outside the time limits specified under FCA rules by including the appropriate wording set out in DISP 1 Annex 3R

The information regarding the Financial Ombudsman Service should be set out clearly, comprehensibly, in an easily accessible way and prominently within the text of our summary resolution.

Unless specifically agreed with Mr. Paul Hedgley if it becomes apparent that the complaint has been made or referred outside the relevant time limits specified under FCA rules we will no consent to the Ombudsman to consider the complaint so will only be able to do so in limited circumstances.

Under these rules the ombudsman service cannot normally look at a complaint from an eligible complainant if it is referred more than 6 months after our summary resolution communication or final response is issued, or, 6 years from when the act complained of happened and 3 years from when a complainant should reasonably have been aware of a problem.

Acknowledging a complaint

If the complaint cannot be resolved by the close of the third business day following the day it is received the Financial Adviser will acknowledge the complaint in writing. The written acknowledgement will be issued promptly.

In relation to oral complaints, the written acknowledgement will set out his understanding of the complaint and will invite the complainant to contact him if their understanding is incorrect.

The acknowledgment letter will provide the complainant early reassurances that the complaint has been received and that we are dealing with it. It will also advise the complainant that:

- they will be provided with regular progress updates;
- if our review has not been completed by the end of eight weeks after its receipt we will send them with a 'written response' explaining why we are not in a position to make a 'final response' and provide details of their rights to refer the matter to the Financial Ombudsman Service;
- On completion of our review that we will provide them with a 'final response' in writing.

A summary of our internal procedures for dealing with complaints must be forwarded in writing and free of charge with the acknowledgement letter.

Investigating a complaint

Any complaint will be investigated competently, diligently and impartially, obtaining additional information as necessary.

The Financial Adviser will investigate all complaints and may, where appropriate, consult the adviser / member of staff whose actions or omissions gave rise to the complaint issue(s) raised.

If the Financial Adviser is subject to the complaint, the investigation will then be conducted by Mr. Paul Hedgley.

The investigation will include, as a minimum:

- a review of the relevant client file;
- take into account any information and / or documents submitted by the complainant (including any standard questionnaires i.e. the mortgage endowment questionnaire);
- if necessary, a request for any additional information;
- contact with the relevant provider(s), if relevant.

Decision to uphold or decline

Any complaint will be assessed fairly, consistently, and will be dealt with promptly.

Under the concept of 'TCF' the interests of the complainant will be put first, applying good judgement in all cases.

The Financial Adviser must take into account all available evidence, the particular circumstances of the case and any other relevant factors when making the decision to uphold or decline. This information will also drive the creation of a Final Response to the complainant and potentially a redress calculation, if considered appropriate.

If remedial action or redress (or both) is to be offered, the type of remedial action and the level of redress must be fair and appropriate to the nature of the complaint.

Decisions made by the Financial Adviser must be approved by him before issuing the 'final response' to the complainant. Any approvals must be made promptly. The Financial Adviser will also notify the Professional Indemnity Insurers in accordance with the terms and conditions of our PII policy.

Were we uphold a complaint concerning the sale on an endowment policy for the purposes of repaying a mortgage the guidance contained in DISP App 1 on the approach to assessing financial loss and appropriate redress will be taken into account.

The approach set out in DISP App 3 will be used when assessing complaints relating to the sale of payment protection contracts or when determining appropriate redress where a complaint is upheld.

Ombudsman decisions / guidance

When assessing a complaint, the lessons learned as a result of determinations by the Ombudsman must be taken into account. The Financial Adviser must analyse and take into account prior to making a decision:

- determinations made by the Ombudsman on any firm's complaints referred onto FOS in respect of similar complaint issues, especially when the FOS's decision differs from the firm's final decision;
- any patterns in determinations made by the Ombudsman concerning complaints received by the firm in respect of similar complaint issues;
- guidance produced by the FOS which is available via its own website;

Other Factors that may be relevant in the assessment of the complaint

When assessing a complaint other factors that may be relevant in the assessment of the complaint must be taken into account. The Financial Adviser must analyse and take into account prior to making a decision:

- similarities with other complaints received by the firm
- any issues identified as a result of the firm's Root Cause Analysis carried out.

Keeping a complainant informed

If the complaint cannot be resolved by close of the third business day, following the day it is received, we will ensure that the complainant is regularly kept informed of our progress with regards to the investigation into their complaint.

Any progress updates will include:

- an explanation why we are not in a position to make a final response and indicate when we expect to be able to provide one;
- what further information / documents we require to resolve their complaint; and
- when they may expect to receive a further update / our Final Response letter.

We will work towards completing our investigation into a complaint within eight weeks of its receipt.

In the event that we have been unable to conclude our investigation within the eight week period, we will write to the complainant and provide an explanation why we are not in a position to make a final response and indicate when we expect to be able to provide one.

We will also provide the complainant with:

- details of their right to refer the complaint to the Financial Ombudsman Service if they are dissatisfied with the progress of our review, their contact details, website address and refer them to the availability of further information on the FOS website. Further information can be found in the Financial Ombudsman Service section of this document;
- confirmation of whether or not we will consent to the ombudsman service considering a complaint if it becomes apparent that the complaint has been made or referred outside the time limits specified under FCA rules.

If we believe that their complaint was made outside of these time limits we will notify them of this in the 'eight week response' and notify them that this is a matter for the Ombudsman to decide.

A copy of the Financial Ombudsman Service's standard explanatory leaflet must be forwarded with the 'eight week response' letter.

Unless specifically agreed with Financial Adviser if it becomes apparent that the complaint has been made or referred outside the relevant time limits specified under FCA rules we will consent to the Ombudsman to consider the complaint so will only be able to do so in limited circumstances] .

Resolving a complaint

All complaints require resolution.

Following the completion of the investigation, the Financial Adviser will issue a written Final Response letter to the complainant.

The Final Response letter will be fair, clear and not misleading and will provide the complainant with:

- details of the investigation;
- the outcome of the investigation;
- if relevant, include any offer of remedial action(s) or the appropriate level of redress (or both), and the basis of calculation;
- details of their right to refer the complaint to the Financial Ombudsman Service if they are dissatisfied with the resolution of the complaint;
- the contact details of the Financial Ombudsman Service (FOS), their website address and refer them to the availability of further information on the FOS website. Further information can be found in the Financial Ombudsman Service section of this document;
- confirmation of whether or not we will consent to the ombudsman service considering a complaint if it becomes apparent that the complaint has been made or referred outside the time limits specified under FCA rules by including the appropriate wording set out in DISP 1 Annex 3R

If we believe that their complaint was made outside of these time limits we will notify them of this in the 'final response' and notify them that this is a matter for the Ombudsman to decide.

The information regarding the Financial Ombudsman Service should be set out clearly, comprehensibly, in an easily accessible way and prominently within the text of our summary resolution.

A copy of the Financial Ombudsman Service's standard explanatory leaflet will be forwarded with the 'final response' letter.

Unless specifically agreed with Financial Adviser if it becomes apparent that the complaint has been made or referred outside the relevant time limits specified under FCA rules we will not consent to the Ombudsman to consider the complaint so will only be able to do so in limited circumstances.

If the firm receives confirmation from the complainant that they are satisfied with the findings and outcome of the investigation and/or remedial action or redress (or both) being offered, the complaint will be considered to be closed by the Financial Adviser

The firm will comply promptly with any offer of remedial action or redress accepted by the complainant.

Where no confirmation has been received from the complainant within 8 weeks of the firm's Final Response, the complaint will also be considered closed. However under the concept of 'TCF', should the complainant contact the firm after 8 weeks, we will review any further correspondence accordingly.
